Applicants must:

- (a) be employed full-time with a GBAA member company (i) in the department whose primary responsibility is flight operations support or (ii) whose primary business is supporting business aviation
- (b) reside in the state of Georgia and maintain a primary work address in the state of Georgia
- (c) submit (i) a completed GBAA 2010 Scholarship Application and (ii) resume
- (d) submit a 500-1000 word essay describing how the GBAA Scholarship will benefit them professionally and impact the pursuit of their career goals (NBAA CAM applicants may use their CAM essay)
- (e) NBAA CAM applicants must also include their CAM approval letter and full CAM application packet (essay and letters of recommendation)

The application deadline is March 15, 2010. Scholarship recipients are notified by April 15, 2010, and are invited as guests of the GBAA to attend the scholarship awards banquet. Upon receiving a scholarship award, recipients must provide the GBAA with proof of employment eligibility requirements and college / FAA accredited school enrollment. Scholarship checks are then made payable to the college, for the students' educational use within the 2010-2011 academic year. Continuing Education scholarship recipients that transfer to another accredited school, staying in the same academic discipline, may apply to the GBAA to retain their scholarship award. Otherwise, unused funds must be returned to the GBAA. Former GBAA scholarship recipients are eligible to reapply.
